

Weld County Assessor's Office

Code of Ethics

1. To provide polite, courteous, professional service.
2. To make each request the top priority of the moment.
3. To appear and behave in a professional, competent and ethical manner at all times.
4. To know and understand our areas of responsibility.
5. To stand behind our work.
6. To do everything we can to produce accurate, fair assessments according to the requirements of the law.
7. To provide clear, accurate explanations of the procedures, legal mandates and appraisal techniques used to list and value property.
8. To maintain accurate, efficient records.
9. To provide access to public information in a timely and efficient manner.
10. To make any corrections as quickly and conveniently as possible.