WELD COUNTY WELCOMES PTI GROUP USA TO JOHNSTOWN

WELD COUNTY, CO – Weld County Commissioner Chairman Sean Conway, on behalf of the Board of County Commissioners, welcomed PTI Group USA to Weld County yesterday at the company’s opening celebration in Johnstown.

PTI Group USA, which is owned by Oil States International, builds modular housing to support the energy industry.

“This is not just an exciting day,” said Commissioner Conway to the audience at opening, “this is a great day.”

The company, which currently employs 50 people and is looking to hire 10 more people a week as production at the facility increases, expects to employ approximately 250 people within the next several years.

“The caliber and work ethic of the Weld County workforce will be a tremendous asset to this facility,” said Conway. “We are extremely proud of the work done at the city, county and state level that brought PTI to Weld County.”
