Re: County Government

COUNTY DIRECTOR OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION TO PURSUE NEW OPPORTUNITIES

WELD COUNTY, CO – Following 20 years of service with Weld County, Monica Daniels Mika has shared with the Board of County Commissioners her desire to pursue a new career opportunity outside of county government.

Mika began her employment in August of 1993 when she was hired as a Planner. Five months later, she was promoted to Long Range Planner and then, in 1995, to Director of Planning Services. In May 2007, the Board of Commissioners promoted Mika to Administrative Services Director, a title that later evolved into the Director of Finance and Administration in 2009.

“The number of years Monica has spent with the county is admirable,” said Commissioner Chairman Douglas Rademacher. “She has worked closely with numerous departments on a variety of projects including the county Employee Medical Clinic and the Weld County Jail.”

Mika will continue to assist the county in wrapping up projects and transitioning position responsibilities until February 14.

“We wish her the best in her new endeavor,” said Rademacher. “And we certainly congratulate her on her new position.”
