SPOTLIGHT WELD COUNTY HIGHLIGHTS RADEMACHER AND GARCIA TERMS AS COMMISSIONERS

WELD COUNTY, CO – The December episode of Spotlight Weld County features Commissioner Chairman Douglas Rademacher and Commissioner William Garcia speaking about their time and service to the county as a commissioner. Both were first elected in 2006; Rademacher as Commissioner for District 2 and Garcia as Commissioner At-Large.

"I recommend every resident get involved in a local board or commission whether at the municipal level, the county level, with a school board or a charity," said Commissioner Rademacher. "Public service is what makes government work."

Both commissioners left their primary private employment to serve the public. Garcia left his law practice and Rademacher, while he still managed his farming operation, devoted the majority of his time to serving as commissioner.

"I have truly enjoyed my time as a commissioner," said Garcia. "We have seen the county go from budget cuts in 2006 and 2007 to a contingency fund of more than $100 million. It is my hope that future Boards continue to the fiscal responsibility this Board has prided itself on."

The Spotlight Weld County episode can be viewed on the county's YouTube Channel at <https://www.youtube.com/user/WeldCountyCO>.

The Spotlight series was launched in May of 2014 as an ongoing effort to use varied communication avenues for sharing county government information with the public.
