WELD COUNTY EMPLOYEE HONORED FOR 37 YEARS OF SERVICE

WELD COUNTY, CO – Weld County employee Jose “Phil” Espinoza was recognized for 37 years of service to Weld County during the regularly scheduled Board meeting June 18.

Espinoza began working for Weld County in 1977, where he worked in the Print Shop and Public Works departments for short periods of time before settling into his position with the Department of Buildings and Grounds.

“Phil is one of the faces of Weld County,” said Commissioner Chairman Douglas Rademacher. “We appreciate his dedication and service for the past 37 years.”

“When I think of Team Weld County, I think of you,” said Commissioner Sean Conway, addressing Espinoza. “There isn’t anything that you wouldn’t step up to do.”

Espinoza thanked the Commissioners for their appreciation and said he has plans to enjoy retirement and cross off some items on his bucket list.

“I’m glad to have had the opportunity to have worked for Weld County. I’ve met some great people,” said Espinoza. “It’s been a fantastic experience and a lifelong one that I wouldn’t trade for anything.”
