WELD COUNTY ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT RECEIVES 33RD CONSECUTIVE AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN REPORTING

WELD COUNTY, CO – During Monday's meeting, the Weld County Board of Commissioners had the honor of presenting the county's accounting staff with its 33rd consecutive Excellence in Reporting Award from the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA).

The award recognizes the county's outstanding financial reporting efforts including a "...constructive 'spirit of full disclosure' to clearly communicate its financial story..." according to a press release sent by the GFOA. The release continued, "The Certificate of Achievement is the highest form of recognition in the area of governmental accounting and financial reporting, and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by a government and its management."

"There is a reason why we are known as being fiscally responsible," said Commissioner Chairman Douglas Rademacher. "And it is because of the work you do."

Commissioner Sean Conway continued, "We should celebrate the fact that each and every one of you are doing an outstanding job and that Weld County is transparent, accurate and a good steward of taxpayer dollars."

The GFOA is a nonprofit professional association serving approximately 17,500 government finance professionals.
