WELD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS PRESENT CERTIFICATE OF RETIREMENT

WELD COUNTY, CO – During their Wednesday meeting, the Weld County Board of Commissioners presented Lois Millsap of the Weld County Sheriff's Office with a certificate of retirement to recognize her service to Weld County and its residents. Millsap started her career with the Weld County Sheriff's Office on October 11, 1999, in the Booking Department; she later transferred to the Work Release Department where she served as a Client Manager until her retirement this month.

"Lois always greeted everyone with a smile," said Sheriff Steve Reams. "Her positive attitude will be missed, but we wish her a great retirement."

During the meeting, Millsap was also presented with an agency retirement plaque from the Sheriff's Office that will hang in their building.

"On behalf of the Board, the Sheriff's Office and Weld County residents, we thank you for your work and dedication to Weld County," said Commissioner Steve Moreno. "Congratulations on retirement."
