COMMISSIONERS COZAD AND MORENO TALK ABOUT THEIR FIRST FEW MONTHS IN OFFICE ON MARCH'S SPOTLIGHT WELD COUNTY

WELD COUNTY, CO – The March Spotlight Weld County show features District 2 Commissioner Julie Cozad and At-Large Commissioner Steve Moreno talking about their first two months in office.

"It's been very exciting for me to learn about my new role as a County Commissioner," said Moreno. "It's an experience I refer to as drinking from a fire hose right now. A lot of time has been spent gathering information and being briefed about current projects."

Both Moreno and Cozad have prior experience working with Weld County. Cozad worked in the county's planning department for several years, and Moreno served during the past 12 years as the Weld County Clerk and Recorder.

Both Commissioners spoke on topics they would like to focus on during their time in office including building a strong work force and bringing a technology center to the county.

"One of the things that is really important to me is making sure everybody in the county who wants a good job has the ability to get a good job," said Cozad, referring to making sure Weld County continues to provide good educational opportunities to residents.
