WELD COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS RECOGNIZE SERVICE OF PUBLIC WORKS EMPLOYEE MIKE HILLIS

WELD COUNTY, CO – This month, the Weld County Board of County Commissioners took time to recognize the outstanding service of Weld employee Mike Hillis as he prepares for retirement. Mike Hillis began his career with Weld County on October 16, 2001, and will retire from his position as the Weld County Department of Public Works Grader Foreman Trainer on January 1, 2017.

“Mike has been a crucial member of Team Weld for a long time, it’s hard to see him go,” said Commissioner Chair Mike Freeman. “My fellow commissioners and I are thrilled to recognize him for all the hard work he has done for the county, and we wish him well in retirement.”

The county commissioners invited Mike to come back for summer work should he find himself missing Team Weld in his retirement, and each offered a personal thanks for his years of service for Weld County.
