WELD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS RECOGNIZE ROBERT LANE FOR 27 YEARS OF SERVICE

WELD COUNTY, CO – The Weld County Board of Commissioners recognized Weld County Public Works Lead Worker Robert Lane for his 27 years of service to Weld County.

"The Board would like to thank Robert for his dedication to serving Weld County," said Commissioner Chair Mike Freeman. "Each project he worked on was important to keeping our roadways and residents safe."

Lane was hired with the Department of Public Works in 1989 as a seasonal employee, but in 1991, he started as a full-time employee with the Mining Division as a Heavy Equipment Operator. In 2000, Lane transferred to the Road and Bridge Division as a Service Worker III. Lane was promoted to a Lead Worker in 2006. Throughout the years, Lane has worked on many projects including installing culverts, removing bridges and working
