WELD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS RECOGNIZE SALLY GOMEZ FOR 27 YEARS OF SERVICE

WELD COUNTY, CO – The Weld County Board of Commissioners recognized Weld County Sheriff's Office Lieutenant Sally Gomez for her 27 years of service to Weld County.

Weld County Commissioners and Sheriff Steve Reams present Lieutenant Sally Gomez with a retirement plaque from the Weld County Sheriff's Office on Wednesday, March 30, 2016.

"Sally is an invaluable member of Team Weld," said Commissioner Chair Mike Freeman. "The Board appreciates her desire to serve the community and dedication to the residents of Weld County."

Gomez has worked for the Weld County Sheriff's Office since April 3, 1989. She started her career in the Detentions Division as well as spent numerous years as a Courts Deputy. Gomez finished her career in a leadership role with the Detentions Division first as a Commander and was then promoted to a Lieutenant in 2012. As Detentions Division Lieutenant, Gomez was responsible for overseeing the daily operations of the Weld County Jail and ensuring the safety and security of the inmates and deputies.

"Throughout my entire career at the Weld County Sheriff's Office, Sally has been by my side," said Sheriff Steve Reams. "She always came to work with a positive attitude and great sense of humor. She will be truly missed."

During retirement, Gomez plans to spend more time with her family including her young grandchildren.
