Become a Candidate

Review the candidate requirements, office responsibilities, and duties of county elected offices in the Colorado Constitution and Revised Colorado Statutes and ensure you meet the qualifications.

Review your voter registration at www.govotecolorado.com to ensure that you are registered to vote and qualified to run for office.

You become a candidate when you publicly announce your intent to run for office and thereafter receive a contribution or making an expenditure in support of your candidacy. You must register a candidate committee with the Secretary of State at tracer.sos.colorado.gov before receiving or spending money.

Familiarize yourself with Colorado Campaign Finance rules and laws, as well as the Secretary of State TRACER system for all campaign finance disclosure reports and committee registration using the following resources:

- Colorado Campaign and Political Finance Manual published by the Colorado Secretary of State, available online at tracer.sos.colorado.gov.
- Colorado Constitution Article XXVIII (Campaign and Political Finance) and XIV (Counties)
- Colorado Revised Statutes (C.R.S.) Title I, Article 45 (Fair Campaign Practices Act) and Article 4 (Elections- Access to Ballot by Candidates)
- Current year Election Calendar and campaign finance filing calendars at www.sos.state.co.us.

Be prepared to register a candidate committee and submit your campaign finance disclosure reports within the timeframes allotted by Colorado law. Failure to file on-time can result in monetary penalties.

Get your name on the ballot in one of three ways:

- Certificate of Designation by Assembly
- Certificate of Designation by Petition
- Certificate of Designation by Write-In

Complete a Candidate Affidavit Form within 10 days of becoming a candidate, have it notarized by a Notary Public and file with the Colorado Secretary of State Office.
