

Carly Koppes

29th Weld County Clerk and Recorder

Carly Koppes is thirty-four years old and a homeowner in Briggsdale, Colorado. Born and raised in Greeley, she is the oldest of three children and her parents are Joseph and Connie Koppes of Greeley. Carly has three horses that she enjoys spending time with, along with shooting targets, crafts, gardening, and camping.

She graduated from Greeley West High School in Greeley, and attended Aims Community College in Greeley, receiving her Liberal Arts degree. Carly is attending Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado with an emphasis on Political Science and Organizational Leadership. Carly is continuing her education with plans to obtain her law degree.

Carly is involved in the Greeley Republican Women, Women of Weld, Colorado Federation of Young Republicans, along with the Northern Colorado Young Republicans. She is also a third-generation Greeley Stampede Wrangler, United Day of Action Weld County, Volunteer for Habitat for Humanity, American Cancer Society Volunteer, and a Second Degree Black Belt with Mountain States International Black Belt Academy (American Kenpo). Carly was also Second-runner up to Miss Rodeo Colorado 2009 and 2010, receiving the Horsemanship Award, Spirit Award, and Miss Congeniality Award.

Carly has been working in the Weld County Clerk and Records office for sixteen years starting in June of 2004. Her main department was the Election department, but she has also worked in the Recording and Motor Vehicle departments during her time working for the Clerk and Recorder office. She received her Colorado Election Official Certification from the Colorado Secretary of State in October 2007 and finished up her national designation of Certified Elections/Registration Administrators (CERA) through the Elections Center's Professional Education Program at Auburn University in July of 2014. Carly is a 2016 graduate of the Leadership Program of the Rockies and in 2019 she received her Public Leadership certification from Pepperdine University through the International Association of Government Officials.

Carly is the youngest person to be elected to the position of Weld County Clerk and Recorder. Carly is currently serving as the President-Elect for the Colorado County Clerks Association and will become President of the association January 2021.

"I was born and raised in a hardworking family and will continue to work hard as your Weld County Clerk and Recorder, just as I have for the last decade as an employee of the office. –Carly"