PRESENTATIONS
Tim Larson – Biosolids Coordinator, Clean Water Compliance & Enforcement Division, Water Quality Control Division, Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment

Tim gave an overview to the board (we have 2 new members) on what biosolids are and what we do here in Weld County and what his role is with the state and us.

Biosolids- Regulations – Protect our environment/Health- EPA is the authority

Biosolids- Definitions – Industrial Waste, High in Nutrients

Plant inspections – Biosolids renewals – What kind of soils do we use? How does changing the soils affect the odor in the air and storage, don’t leave it in piles spread it as soon as possible.

We currently have a digital campaign running in Fort Lupton. We received 92,000 impressions and received 250 clicks to call. We started with Fort Lupton because a survey showed that 30% of the population used tobacco (including e-cigarettes) compared to 17% for the rest of Weld County. There are 4 out of 10 are under the age of 24 and 4 out of 10 live below the federal poverty level.

A motion by Linda Kautz to adjourn the meeting and was seconded by Joyce Smock. Meeting was adjourned at 10:17 am. Next meeting is Tuesday, August 27, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,
