The Weld County Area Agency on Aging (AAA), located in the Department of Human Services, receives funding from the Federal Older Americans Act and the Older Coloradoans Fund to provide services to Weld County residents who are 60 and older. The Weld County AAA also includes the Options for Long-Term Care Single Entry Point, ADRC Program and Adult Protective Services for those ages 18 and older.

The Weld County Area Agency on Aging is one of 16 AAA's in the state of Colorado. The Area Agency on Aging services and community partners strive to keep individuals in their homes and maintain independence for as long as possible. Seniors make up an important part of our communities, with an estimated 45,000 adults aged 60 and over in Weld County.

INTERNAL PROGRAMS

Adult Protective Services

Adult Protective Services (APS) provides protection for at-risk adults by investigating allegations of abuse, exploitation, caretaker neglect and self neglect. When appropriate, APS can assist the at-risk adult to arrange for services. An at-risk adult is anyone age 18 or older who is unable to meet their own basic needs or arrange services to meet their basic needs without assistance due to a physical or mental condition.

Any concerned individual can make a report to Adult Protective Services by calling our Intake Screeners at (970) 346-7676. Each report will be evaluated to determine the appropriate response. Adult Protective Services also provides community education regarding abuse/neglect of at-risk adults and the services provided. Please contact (970) 346-6950 x 6248 to arrange a presentation.

APS Mandatory Reporters (MR) must call Law Enforcement Dispatch at 970-350-9600 Option #4 to make an initial report of physical abuse, caretaker neglect, and/or financial exploitation. MRs must call reports in on adults age 70 years of age or older or adults 18 years of age or older with an intellectual or developmental disability.

Chore Service Program

The Chore Service Program provides funds to seniors for chore services which they are unable to do themselves. The program is designed to increase safety of individuals living at home. Services may include deep cleaning the home, grass/weed cutting, snow removal, etc. Weld County residents age 60 and over are eligible to apply. For more information, please contact: (970) 346-6950 x 6130.

Dental, Vision and Hearing Program

The Dental, Vision, and Hearing Program provides financial assistance to seniors in need of dental, vision, and/or hearing aid services. These may include exams, extractions, dentures, frames, and/or lenses, and hearing aids. Weld County residents age 60 and over are eligible to apply. For more information, please contact: (970) 346-6950 x 6117.

Family Caregiver Program

This program offers support, resources, and information to assist caregivers. We can help you find relief and assistance through a variety of respite and support programs. As you provide care for an elderly family member, many questions will arise: Are they getting what they need? What other services are available to help them? How can I get some “time off”? We can help you answer these and other vital questions.

Qualified personal care for your family member can be provided in their/your home, facility or in a supportive group setting in the community. Among the choices are the following:

- Adult Day Programs: Daytime care for older or disabled adults offering social activities, as well as personal care, transportation and meals.
- In-Home Respite Care: Companionship, supervision and assistance for older adults in their home.
- Out-Home Respite Care: Overnight stays in a community facility.

Weld County residents caring for an individual age 60 and over or age 55 and over with a dementia diagnosis are eligible to apply. For more information, please contact: 970\) 346-6950 x 6130.

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren

The Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Program provides support and tools to grandparents and older adult caregivers of children. The program offers support groups, legal information, and educational workshops focusing on various challenges grandparents face when raising their grandchildren. This program targets Weld County residents age 55 and older who are raising grandchildren. For more information, please contact: 970\) 346-6952.

Information and Assistance/ADRC (Aging and Disability Resources for Colorado)

The Information and Assistance Program is a link to community services, both public and private, for older adults and their families who are interested in becoming aware of the available resources in Weld County.

The ADRC Program is a single point of entry to assist people age 18 and older with a disability or 60 and over who need guidance through the long-term care process. Long-term support refers to a wide range of in-home, community-based and institutional services and programs designed to help individuals' access services. The ADRC program can provide Weld County residents with the following:

- Information and Referral
- Options Counseling
- Benefits Counseling
- Long-Term Futures Planning

The ADRC Resource Specialist is very knowledgeable about available programs and services to help meet your needs. Options Counseling is also available to give a more person-centered approach to help individuals gain an understanding of the benefits and limitation of long-term care support and service options. The goal of Options Counseling is to provide the individual with all the information needed for them to make an informed decision about long-term care. For more information or assistance please contact: \(970\) 346-6952.

In-Home Services Program

The In-Home Services Program provides financial assistance to seniors in need of Homemaker or Personal Care assistance to remain in their homes and to live independently. Homemaker assistance may consist of meal preparation, shopping, light housework, money management, or using the telephone. Personal Care assistance could consist of bathing, dressing, walking, eating and other personal care activities. Weld County residents age 60 and over are eligible for apply. For more information, please contact: \(970\) 346-6950 x 6305.

Ombudsman Program

An Ombudsman is an advocate who protects the civil and human rights of persons in long-term care and assisted living facilities. They serve as a problem-solver and mediator; a resource and educator about long-term care; and an objective investigator of complaints and concerns in long-term care and assisted living facilities.

Persons that wish to use an Ombudsman may be residents of long-term care and assisted living facilities; friends and relatives of residents; staff members of facilities; and the community at large.

For more information, please contact: (970) 346-6950 x 6128 or 6129.

Options for Long-Term Care

Options for Long-Term Care (OLTC) provides functional assessments and on-going case management to older and disabled low-income individuals who are in need of long-term care services in their own homes, alternative care facilities, or for people in need of placement in a skilled nursing facility.

Weld County residents looking for this assistance must first fill out the public assistance application through Weld County Department of Human Services for Long-Term Care Medicaid or Home Care Allowance in order to be evaluated functionally to determine eligibility before receiving the services from OLTC. Weld County residents may also apply online with PEAK (<http://coloradopeak.force.com>). OLTC has the goal of providing long-term care in the setting requested by clients and their families and utilizing Medicaid in the most cost-effective manner.

*If you or someone you know needs long-term care, please refer them to the ADRC program for information and an application: 970-346-6952.

*If you are already a client with OLTC or would like to contact OLTC directly, please call: (970) 346-6950 x 6102 or 6108.

The Weld Aging Well Program offers multiple workshops and classes for older adults to take control of their health and remain active in the community and home. Topics covered include:

- A Matter of Balance: Learn ways to reduce the fear of falling and break the fear of falling cycle by increasing activity levels. The program focuses on practical coping strategies. A variety of activities address physical, social, and cognitive factors affecting the fear of falling.
- Be Well with Diabetes: Learn tools to become a better self manager of your diabetes. People with diabetes and/or their caregiver are encouraged to attend. Participants learn how to reduce stress, read nutrition labels, prevent low blood sugar, the importance of exercise, and to delay complications.
- Healthier Living Colorado™: Learn tools to become a better self manager of your chronic health condition(s). People with heart disease, arthritis, diabetes, asthma, COPD, or any other health condition and/or their caregiver are encouraged to attend. Participants learn how to reduce pain and stress, eat well and exercise, manage symptoms and communicate better with others to name a few.
- Powerful Tools for Caregivers: This workshop empowers the family caregiver to find ways to reduce stress, manage emotions such as guilt and anger, improve communication with others, and to take better care of yourself.
- Strong People: A strength training program that builds bone density, muscle mass, and improves joint health. The program also reduces risk for diabetes, heart disease, arthritis, depression, and obesity. Learn appropriate exercises and proper technique at an adequate intensity level specific for you.
- Tai Chi-Moving for Better Balance: A group fall prevention program that uses a unique combination of eight single forms that are derived from the traditional 24- form Yang-style Tai chi. The program goals are to improve functional ability such as balance and physical function; reduce fall-related risks; and reduce fall frequency.

For more information, please contact: 970\) 346-6950 x 6117.

Volunteer Opportunities

There are multiple opportunities to volunteer for the Weld County Area Agency on Aging, thorough training is provided:

- Senior Nutrition: volunteer at a meal site by serving food, taking reservations, and completing paperwork, to name a few.
- Weld Aging Well: become a trained leader and offer workshops in your community.
- Administration: opportunities to be a member of one of our many boards or general office and clerical duties are available.

For more information, please contact: \(970\) 346-6950.
