1) Question: Is the work area between columns One and Two and J and K? It appears that the building has undergone a major remodel?

Answer: No. The work area we are looking at is between column lines 3 and 4, and F and G. There has been remodeling done in the building in the past, but this area has remained much the same. The concrete stairway is original to the building.