

Gun Rights

Cold, smooth blackness of Dad's revolver

Vital for self-defense

Or for shooting targets.

Dad carries a license to conceal his gun.

Exercising his Second Amendment rights.

So excited at the firing range as I shoot my first gun

BOOM!

Loud and thrilling

Recoil of each shot is a blast, but . . .

Scary at the same time,

I'm safe

If I know how to shoot, I can protect my family and me.

When hunting, I'll be quiet to get the best shot.

Firing at a deer I must be right on target.

BANG!

But...

Before I get to hunt,

I have to take a course.

And the course will teach me a lot about the hunt,

About safety.

Thanks to the 2nd Amendment

I can hunt,

feed my family, have fun, and improve marksmanship.

I can be safe

And protect those I keep close.

Bullseye!
